Se busca una mujer para cocinar, limpiar y lavar para siete hombres...

A Rose Thornton, sola en el mundo y sin un centavo en el bolsillo, aquel anuncio le pareció la respuesta a sus plegarias... y el increíblemente atractivo vaquero que contrató sus servicios algo así como un sueño hecho realidad. Pero cuando llegó al desvencijado rancho en medio de las praderas de Tejas y conoció a sus medio salvajes hermanos, Rose empezó a pensar que ni siquiera los apasionados besos del fantástico George eran compensación suficiente para el trabajo que tenía por delante.

Nunca en su vida había visto un lugar más necesitado de una mano femenina... Los hermanos Randolph formaban un grupo formidable, dedicados en cuerpo y alma a levantar un imperio ganadero frente a los cuatros y los bandidos mexicanos, y lo que menos necesitaban era que una mujer les incordiara enseñándoles buenos modales e intentando cambiar su modo de vida...

Sin embargo, todo cambió cuando George sucumbió a los encantos de aquella deliciosa marimandona decidida a organizarles la vida.

Reseña:

«Leigh Greenwood es una de las maravillas del mundo moderno. Muy pocos autores son capaces de escribir una saga de siete libros en la que cada narración es mejor que la anterior, pero cada una es excelente». Harriet Klausner, Affaire de Coeur
