Giulio Cesare. La Guerra civile in Spagna. Bellum Hispaniense riciclato (Italian Edition) Antero Reginelli

Pharnace superato, Africa recepta (sconfitto Farnace, riguadagnata l'Africa), rientrato in Italia, Giulio si fermò a Roma circa sei mesi. I conservatori, guidati dal giovane Pompeo e da Labieno, hanno riorganizzato un grande esercito e portato parte della Spagna dalla loro parte: Cesare è costretto a intervenire per chiudere i conti. È il "Bellum Hispaniense" (La guerra spagnola), di autore ignoto, l'ultimo capitolo (libro) del Corpus Caesarianum. L'amico di Giulio Cesare lo ricicla e, in linea con i precedenti lavori, lo ripropone in una versione scorrevole, leggera ma non impoverita, anzi, impreziosita da interessanti notizie, curiose, alcune intriganti come l'ipotesi della presenza di soldati romani dalle parti del deserto di Gobi, una quarantina di anni prima della nascita di Cristo. Che altro dire? È una lettura gradevole e, nello stesso tempo, originale, stuzzicante, un lavoro adatto ai lettori giovani e non giovani, anche non appassionati di storia.
