At last, travel to Mars is here.

Private enterprise has raised the funds and mastered the technology. But what about the people? What is there for four fit adults to do for 8 months in a small capsule? What sort of person can keep their cool for half a billion miles alongside three strangers? And does that person also have what it takes to create a thriving society from scratch ... hundreds of millions of kilometres from family, friends and even the nearest doctor?

One more thing: the journey is strictly one way.
