Fozz on Football Craig Foster

In Fozz on Football, Craig Foster will explain the game and how Australia can develop to become a serious threat to footballing nations. He will explore the national styles of various influential countries and how that translates into a game that people love. He will also look at how the game in Australia is played, the goalkeepers and strikers, the past and the present, and importantly how Australia can maximize its opportunities. Easy to read and accessible, Fozz on Football will help anyone get a much deeper understanding of what football is about, how the game works, and how Australia needs to improve to excel at the game. Whether it's existing fans who want a better understanding, or those who don't currently follow football and wish to know more prior to the World Cup, Fozz on Football is a perfect guide to the 'beautiful game'.
