Accidentally Famous (Quiet Adventures of Iggy the Introverted Inkapus) Kristen Maxwell
Life may have its own special plans for you.

A well-meaning friend submits Iggy's ink art to a big contest. A quiet inkapus, Iggy finds himself suddenly thrown into the spotlight and totally unprepared--and it only gets more embarrassing from there. Will he ever have a quiet life again?

Iggy has to decide between living a life that is comfortable, or embracing a future that is bigger, but a little scarier.

For parents and educators: Recent research shows introverted children are often underrepresented in today's social sphere. This book gives them a character they can relate to, while also helping introverted and extroverted children understand their personality differences.

Topics:

Friendship, working together, overcoming fear/challenges, problem solving, overcoming embarrassment, humor, the introvert perspective.
